WHEREAS, Ms. Ledgerwood's work is included in prominent public collections including the Art Institute of Chicago, the Museum of Contemporary Art of Chicago, the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the Museum of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles, the Milwaukee Museum of Art, and the RATP transit art collection, and Bir Hakeim station in Paris, France, which is a Sister Cities International Program gift exchange from the City of Chicago to the City of Paris; and

WHEREAS, In 2015, Ledgerwood was commissioned by the Embassy of the United States in Vientiane, Laos to create a monumental site-specific painting, and in 2018 she became the first Chicago-based artist to create an installation for the Art Institute's Bluhm Family Terrace; and

WHEREAS, The Authority has reviewed and accepted Judy Ledgerwood's proposal for artwork at the Blue Line Racine station; and

ORDINANCE NO. 024-159

WHEREAS, Based on Ms. Ledgerwood's unique knowledge, qualifications, and past performance, the Authority has determined that it would not be cost effective, time efficient, or in the best interests of the Authority or the public to advertise for these services; and

WHEREAS, Section 1.4B of the Authority's Procurement Policy and Procedures provides for the award of contracts without competitive bidding when the desired services require professional, technical, or artistic skill and federal funds are not utilized; now, therefore:

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CHICAGO TRANSIT BOARD OF THE CHICAGO TRANSIT AUTHORITY:

SECTION 1. The Chairman of the Chicago Transit Board, the President of the Authority, and the Vice President of Purchasing and Supply Chain, or their designees, are hereby authorized to enter into a contract with Judy Ledgerwood for artwork for the Blue Line Racine Station for an amount not to exceed Three Hundred Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($304,500.00) under Requisition No. C24CT103071674.

SECTION 2. The Chairman, President, and Vice President of Purchasing and Supply Chain, or their designees, are further authorized to take such actions and execute such documents as may be necessary to implement the objectives of this ordinance.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.
